

Dear family and friends,

I want to let you know about an opportunity Cole and I have to go on a mission trip to Haiti August 8-15. Haiti is among the poorest countries in the world and the devastating 2010 earthquake killed 316,000 Haitians, injured 300,000 and left one million homeless.

Shortly after the quake, The Global Mission and Crossline Church of Laguna Hills, California, where I play in worship every Sunday, began sending teams to help rebuild this battered country and her precious people, feeding the hungry, rebuilding homes, discipling and educating youths, sharing the Gospel, resourcing leaders and rescuing youths off the streets of Port-au-Prince.

The trip Cole and I are going on aims to reach the children of Haiti with the good news of Jesus through the Bible-based music of my dear friend Dean-o, the Children's Pastor at Crossline Church. In the fifteen years I have played concerts with Dean-o and the Dynamos, we have seen hundreds of children give their lives to the Lord and tens of thousands built up in their love for Him and knowledge of His Word, and I cannot wait to see what God does in the lives of the children of Haiti.

For the past four years, Cole has been faithfully leading worship on guitar and singing in middle school, church youth group and soon in his high school worship group and he has been invited to join Dean-o's band for this special trip. What a joy it will be for me to play such fun, but purposeful music alongside my son in this very meaningful endeavor.

Because of the emphasis of this trip on reaching children for Christ through music, Cole and I feel a special call to go and want to invite you to partner with us in this ministry. To make this trip possible, we need to raise support of $3,990 total for both of us ($1,995 each). The money will cover the cost of transportation, meals, lodging and ministry projects. We also plan to leave some of the music equipment we bring with us as a blessing to the Haitian churches we will be working with.

We are both excited to see how God will work through us to change lives in Haiti while changing our own lives, as well. We want to help continue the work that has already begun transforming a nation for the kingdom of God, and we humbly ask for your prayers and financial support. Will you consider joining our team by giving a tax-deductible gift to help send us on our way?

Thank you so much for remembering us on this journey. May God be glorified in all we do!

Sincerely,

Tim and Cole Jones
